Yoga For Beginners*

The library will host beginner yoga classes with instructor, Amy Bartholomew, each Wednesday evening in October from 6:30-7:30 pm at the Audubon Senior Center. The cost is $35 for the five week program. Participants are asked to wear comfortable clothing and bring a yoga mat or towel.

Classes run from Oct. 2 through Oct. 30. Enrollment is limited, so please register by Sep. 25. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. Please send a check payable to the Free Public Library of Audubon indicating "yoga" in the memo section.

Remember: always check with your doctor before beginning an exercise program.

Calling All Teens: Make Your Voices Heard!

The library is seeking 9 to 15 teen volunteers to form a Teen Advisory Committee. This committee will serve to advise the library and plan programs that appeal to the teenagers of Audubon.

The committee will meet once a month at the Audubon Senior Center. Interested teens should contact the library and complete the one page committee application. Come on out! Make your voice heard! We want to know what you think!

Visiting Author: John Holl*

Award winning journalist, craft beer expert, and food enthusiast, John Holl will be visiting the library to discuss his book Dishing Up New Jersey: 150 recipes from the Garden State.

Celebrating the foods, flavors, cultures, and traditions of the Garden State, including recipes that feature NJ's own produce — tomatoes, corn, cranberries, blueberries, apples — along with others like deep-fried boardwalk treats, Mr. Holl's talk is the ultimate tribute to New Jersey's best.

You're not going to want to miss it!

New Library Pass: The Mütter Museum!

The library is pleased to have added a museum pass to the Mütter Museum in Philadelphia for patrons to borrow. This museum of medical oddities is sure to be the perfect stop for the Halloween season!

Our pass permits free admission for up to 4 individuals during regular museum hours. Check it out or put it on hold today!

* Events will be held at the Audubon Senior Center, located right next door to the Library. Attendance is free and registration is NOT required, unless otherwise indicated.

Children's Programming

A Special Sensory-Friendly Musical Story Time

Read to a Dog

This program is designed to allow kids the chance to read to a non-judgmental listener, one who will accept the story exactly as they read it. For many children, this allows them a rare chance to experience stress free reading.

Children are welcome to come and choose a book to read to a furry friend. All listeners are certified therapy dogs.

Downton Abbey Celebration!

Downton Abbey fans, come celebrate the movie release with a formal tea, presentation and craft. This event will take place on Saturday, September 21 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm at the Audubon Senior Center.

Our very own Denyse Bieg will share stories and photos of Highclere Castle, the famous setting of the Downton Abbey series, where she twice attended Christmas balls. A delicious assortment of teas, scones, tea sandwiches, and desserts will be served, catered by Audubon's Treehouse Café and Desserts by Design.

And before tea begins, create your own "fascinator" (a tiny, elaborate headpiece) so you will be dressed in true English fashion for the tea!

Attendance is limited to 20 guests at a cost of $10/person and registration is required. To reserve your seat at this event, sign up and make payment at the library. Lady Violet declined her invitation, but sends her regards!
